General Guidelines

- Absolutely no pets, alcohol, illegal drugs, firearms, weapons, or explosives are allowed on camp property.

- Groups have the option to reserve the same dates for the following year before they leave the site . However, dates are subject to change due to holidays.

- Smoking is not permitted in the buildings at Pecometh. An outdoor smoking area is provided for guests.

- It is our purpose to promote a distraction free environment here at Pecometh . Please respect quiet hours from 11:00 pm - 7:00 am so that guests may have a chance for peaceful rest.

- Use of vehicles on camp property is discouraged between the hours of 11:00 pm and 7:00 am.

- Groups and Individuals will be held responsible for any damages to facilities beyond normal wear and tear .

- A public telephone is available for your use in the Godfrey Commons hallway. Office phones and equipment are not available to guests. The Guest Host will answer incoming calls and relay emergency information as necessary .

- Pecometh does not provide health services for your stay. It is recommended that you have a designated person who holds their First Aid and CPR certification available to your group. First Aid Kits will be made available to you during your stay through the Guest Host.

Groups are advised to have a certified CPR and First Aid adult as a member of your group .

- The conservation of flora and fauna is a responsibility that belongs to all of us . Please help us preserve the natural beauty of this special place .

Please park in designated areas. Parking is not permitted on the grass. Parking is not permitted in the Welcome circle at the Riverview Retreat Center.

- Snacks that do not require refrigeration or heating are welcome at the center .

- Pecometh is a year around camp and retreat ministry that serves thousands of guests per year . There may be restrictions on certain areas of the property to allow all our campers and guests safe sanctuary.

- Pecometh Guidelines are to be shared with all members of your group before and upon arrival . All members of the group are held responsible for following procedures and policies, including minor children. Children must be supervised at all times by an adult over the age of 18.

Modification or changes to any of this information must have prior approval from Richelle Darrell , the Director of Programs.
